Greg,

We did not request oral argument. Judge Bulsara's rules say he typically does not hold argument, and require the parties to state a basis for it if requested. We think the papers do an adequate job of setting out the issues.

Case No. 23-CV-02848 (E.D.N.Y.)

Counsel –

Pursuant to Judge Bulsara's Individual Practices, Rule VI(F), we write to inquire regarding oral argument on Plaintiffs' Motion for Class Certification.

According to the Court's Rules, "Parties may request oral argument by filing a letter requesting the same upon filing of a fully briefed motion, explaining the basis for the request." As we anticipate Plaintiffs will be filing the fully briefed Motion by tomorrow's filing deadline, so please confirm at your earliest convenience whether Plaintiffs intend to request oral argument on their Motion.

Thank you.

Regards,

Greg
